DAILY JOKE

I dreamed about swimming in an ocean made of orange soda last night, It took me a while to work out that it was just a Fanta Sea.

Why did the girl put peanut butter on the road? To go with the traffic jam.

Did you know that without geometry, life is pointless.

Meet the faces behind Agoonoram:

Free Time Survival Guide

It's not easy to get bored at Agoonoree, and to prove it, we have listed a whole lot of things to keep you occupied during your free time!

Visit the Canteen and Trading

Eating awesome food makes everything better, and the best food can be found up at admin at the canteen. If you're hungry for chocolate, chips, ice cream and other junk food, just head on over and visit the supercool venturers who will take it upon themselves to take the little pieces of useless metal off your hands in exchange for tasty food of your choice. Canteen opening times are 11am-12 noon and 4-5pm.

Hang out with your guests at AgoonFM

If you're bored, go over to AgoonFM and you won't be soon! Bring your guests over to the parade ground and chill with all the cool kids on camp. Of course cool kids are cooler with ice creams (purchased from the canteen).

Check out the Gateways!

Our Magical Mystery theme has given us some indescribably amazing gateways. What better way to waste time than standing outside another troop staring at their marvellous creation.

Free high fives

Give other patrols free high fives because... Just because.

Bungalow

Relax, make new friends and prove your artistic prowess in an hour of crafts over at the Bungalow. Also, if you feel like it, thank all the Venturers for setting up the Bungalow so that you guys could use it, it took a lot of effort and hard work to raise it.

The Amazing Catering Team

Make sure you thank the amazing catering team for the delicious food they provide to us. They work very hard at all hours of the day to make sure that everyone gets a feed!

'Catering where the best food is served' - Nic

VIP'S

Yesterday BP Park was visited by a number of highly esteemed guests from a variety of service clubs and both Scout and Girl Guide movements for the Sponsor's Afternoon Tea. The VIPs were given a grand tour by some of our own camp residents, and got the opportunity to see what the youth members of their organisations have been doing.

The VIP's appeared to be very impressed with the activities that everyone is participating in and they were also impressed with the fact that both Scouts and Girl Guides were working seamlessly together.

The VIP'S would like to thank everyone for the hard work and effort that they are putting in to this camp, especially the Leaders that have spent countless hours prior to the camp in order to make sure that it is run smoothly.

Activities

Despite yesterday's rain, everyone looked like they were having a great time on all the bases! Everyone at the Communication base at Bungalow certainly had fun as they got to do several different activities including Morse Code. The rain apparently did not affect the abseilers as they were seen abseiling. The Water Activities Base were certainly heard, and apparently they too had fun. The orienteering team may have gotten lost a couple of times but it was worth it for a great time.

Night Activity

Last night patrols participated in a range of fun activities organised by the Rovers. They all had a great night having had loads of fun! Thank you to the Rovers for organising and running these fabulous activities. The Venturers had a tonne of fun. As well as joining in on the Rovers activities, they also played some games at VC including 3D Twister and 3D Battleships.

Competition

Over the week, there will be a competition for all guests. The prizes are a family pass to see the movie 'Pete's Dragon' and also a Captain America bag with added Captain America related trinkets. So make sure you look at the Agoonoram each day to get a chance to win these fantastic prizes.
