*A guy walks into a bar and asks the bartender for punch and the bartender says, 'If you want punch you need to get in line'. The guy looked around for a line and then he realized...
There is no punchline.*

TODAY'S PUZZLE

The Missing Gnomes

It was a quiet, hot morning in Trooplines while all the campers were at activities and the leaders were at their meetings when Helena from Orange discovered that ALL the gnomes were missing! She searched high and low but all she found was a note that read:

Helena looked at Wombat with confusion and asked, "Where are our gnomes? Will they be back? Will they miss lunch?". Luckily, three brave Venturers from Teen Beach came to help Orange in their time of need and embark on this gnome changing adventure. Cat, Nic and Buddy were the three musketeers who would pass over many mountains and through many valleys to reach the famed Admin tent, where past gnomes have been found. Upon arrival, Chief Shauny Wee Wee greeted the travellers, but unfortunately he hadn't seen the missing gnomes. Gaytimes in hand, the three said goodbye to Chief Shauno and continued on their search through the forest of tents and found the tribe of Rovers. As the Venturers entered, they saw many people dancing to bangers such as Katy Perry's Dark Horse and Wild Horses. The Venturers joined the celebration and learned many things from Coach Bolton and his basketball team. Coach even told Cat where the gnomes were going and offered one of his bravest and strongest players to help their mission. As Nic, Buddy, Cat and Troy Bolton travelled through Agoonorland, they found some worried leaders from Blue, Grey and Green who were very concerned about the safety of their gnomes. After travelling for many days and nights, Buddy alerted the travellers to a clue in Green Troop. Captain Fantastic Tim jumped for joy when he saw these travellers at his gateway! He had been hearing some mysterious noises coming from M.A.S.H. but was too scared to check them out alone. Nic, Cat, Buddy, Troy Bolton and Captain Tim raced to M.A.S.H., following the footsteps, they peered into the tent. The footprints were all over the M.A.S.H. floor until finally Cat sees a Teddy in the bed. Teddy calls the Venturers over and gives them the best clue yet. "Follow the music!" he says and points towards the abseiling tower. The travellers run as fast as they can and they hear the music, and Nic is the first to see them. All of the gnomes are dancing by the stage to Daryl Braithwaite's 'Horses'. Orange, Green, Grey and Blue are so happy to have their gnomes back!
