A-goon FM

A-goon FM is an activity on camp that is available to anyone at free time and is also the main source of music for the entire camp. It is a very cool place to visit and hang out your with patrol. Come down at free time and check them out for a fun chat and good music.

Troop Review - Grey (By Grey)

Grey troop is having good fun at Agoonoree. When we played music at lunch time, Orange and Yellow have tasteless music which would drown ours out. We are looking forward to our Carnival Day tomorrow.

Top Debates:

The team at the Agoonoram desk have tallied your votes from the questions featured in the last issue. The results where decisive with 100% of votes going to strawberry jam and Maxibons in their respective categories. These astounding results have conclusively proven the superior ice-cream and jam flavour.

Closing Ceremony

We loved everyone's performances at the closing ceremony last night.

Although it means camp is almost over, we were able to reflect on the great experiences we have had and all the friendships founded and renewed.

Tonight will be troop parties so get ready for a great time before we all head home tomorrow. The 2019 Movie Set Agoonoree will be a blockbuster!

Troop Report—Blue

We are the true blue of camp! Blue troop has the best food, best leaders and best music of the whole camp!

We are always early to parade and night activities.

We are having lots of fun in blue so come and say hello!

Aussie, Aussie, Aussie!

Oi, Oi, Oi!

Slapped Hams?

Is your lunch not as tasty as you hoped? Are you finding your sandwiches tasteless? Well, a study completed by Orange E claims that slapping ham before consumption improves the flavour. Our top Agoonoram reporters are working to discover if there is truth behind these claims or if they have been falsified.

Banana Bash

Banana Bash visitor's day is this coming Sunday (30th of September). This means that all members of scouting can come along and see all the fun that Rovers get up too! If you would like some more information about this, go talk to a Rover about Banana Bash.
